From Tuesday May 10. to Saturday May 14. 1726.

Dublin, May 4.

THIS Day the Lords Justices took the Oaths in His Majesty's Court of King's-Bench.

The same Day their Excellencies published the following Proclamation.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governours of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

By Armach. R. West. C. Wm. Conolly.

WHEREAS His most excellent Majesty hath thought fit to signify His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which at present stands prorogued to the Seventeenth Day of May Instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the Eleventh Day of August next; We do therefore hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Thursday the Eleventh Day of August next; Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Fourth Day of May, 1726.

By their Excellency's Command,

Tho. Tickell.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, May 14. On the 5th Instant the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chose for their Moderator Mr. William Mitchel. His Majesty's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudoun was read, as was likewise his Majesty's most gracious Letter to the Assembly. His Majesty's High Commissioner made a Speech to the Assembly, which was answered on their Part by the Moderator; and a Committee being appointed, drew up a dutiful Answer to His Majesty's most gracious Letter.

The High Commissioner's Speech.

YOU have the Happiness, at the Opening of your Meeting, to receive Assurances of His Majesty's Protection, and fresh Marks of His Royal Favour.

The Manner in which His Majesty, in His most gracious Letter, has been pleased to take Notice of the many Proofs you have given of your Zeal and Affection for His Person and Government, of your Care and Concern for the Peace and Welfare of the Church, for the suppressing of Prophaness and Immorality, and the preventing the Growth of Popery, must undoubtedly make you with great Cheerfulness lay hold of all the Opportunities your Stations may afford you of giving new Proofs of your Loyalty and Affection to His Royal Person and Government, under which you have the Means put into your Hands to promote Ends so worthy of your Profession, and which so nearly concern the Honour of God, the Peace and Quiet of His Majesty's Government, and the Welfare of His Subjects.

I am authorized and commanded by His Majesty, and I do with great Satisfaction renew to you the Assurances of His Royal Intentions to maintain inviolably the Government of this Church, as by Law establish'd, together with the full and free Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges.

That you might be the better enabled to prevent the Increase of Ignorance and Growth of Popery in the Highlands and Islands, His Majesty did last Year grant Warrant for One Thousand Pounds to be employed for the Entertainment of Itinerant Ministers and Catechists, in the Manner which I had the Honour to acquaint you with at that Time; I doubt not the Application of it has been made so, as to shew your real and sincere Concern in so considerable a Branch of your Duty as Ministers and as good Subjects.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant a Warrant for the same Sum, and for the same good Purposes this Year, which is in my Hands, and I must desire you to appoint a Committee for the Management of it according to the Terms of the Grant.

His Majesty has been pleased again to confer upon me the Honour of representing His Royal Person in this Assembly; your Conduct in former Assemblies, and particularly in those where I had the Honour to bear the same Character, encouraged me to undertake this great Trust.

The Unanimity, Moderation, and Prudence usual in your Assemblies, as they will give great Weight to your Proceedings, so they will the better enable me to be serviceable to this Church, to the Interests of which I have always had a peculiar Regard.

The Assembly's Answer to His Majesty's most gracious Letter.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, do, as in all Duty bound, return your Majesty our most most humble and hearty Thanks for your gracious Letter to us, and for your great Goodness in signifying your favourable Acceptance of the Zeal and Affection of this Church for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; Duties which we account ourselves bound to by the strongest Obligations: And that your Majesty is pleased graciously to take Notice of the Concern we have shewn for the Peace and Welfare of the Church, for the suppressing of Prophaness and Immorality, and preventing the Growth of Popery, animates us to exert ourselves yet the more in these Duties, under the great Encouragements given us by your Majesty's approving our present Meeting, and countenancing the same with your Royal Authority; and it shall be our earnest Care to shew the like Dispositions as formerly to do all that in us lies towards the promoting these desirable Ends and Purposes. The Assurances your Majesty is graciously pleased to give us of your Royal Protection and Assistance in doing of the same, and of your Readiness to countenance us in so pious a Work, which so nearly concerns the Honour of God, the Peace and Quiet of your Government, and Welfare of your Subjects, make us deeply sensible of the great Kindness of Heaven in blessing us with such a Sovereign, and are such Encouragements from a Prince piously disposed, and who has so much at Heart the Weal of his Subjects, as must render us without Excuse, should we be remiss in our Duty.

It is most comforting to us, and gives us a full Confidence in your Majesty's Royal Goodness, that you are graciously pleased to renew the Assurances of your firm Resolution to maintain the Established Government of this Church in the full Enjoyments of all their Rights and Privileges; these being what we have exceedingly at Heart and do judge ourselves the more strongly obliged, by these your Majesty's gracious Assurances, to conduct ourselves on our Part with that Moderation, Unanimity and Prudence that becomes us, and which may entitle us humbly to hope for the Continuance of your Majesty's Royal Favour.

Your Majesty's pious and bountiful Donation to the last Assembly of a Sum to be employed in maintaining Itinerant Preachers and Catechists in Places where Ignorance and Popery prevail, for remedying these Evils, we humbly hope will be found to have been exactly managed according to your Majesty's gracious Intentions, as will appear by the Accompts of the Management ready to be exhibited to your Majesty's Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, or to the Barons of your Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as your Majesty was graciously pleased to direct: And now that your Majesty has, out of your Royal Goodness and laudable Concern for the Good of the Souls of your Subjects, been pleased to renew your Royal Gift to this Assembly for the like pious Purposes, which your Majesty's Commissioner has delivered to us, we accept it with the most profound Respect and Thankfulness, and shall endeavour not to be wanting on our Part, to employ it agreeably to your Majesty's Royal Will, and account for it, as your Majesty has appointed in your Royal Warrant; and in this we act with great Cheerfulness, seeing, as we are bound to promote Obedience to your Majesty's just Laws, the Tendency of our Endeavours is to make those upon whom we bestow our Labours, in so far as we succeed by the Blessing of God, at the same Time better Subjects to your Majesty, as they are made better Christians. And for this End, all Care shall be taken by us, that none be employed in this Service but such as are unquestionably well affected to your Majesty and your auspicious Government. And we shall be careful to take all those we employ strictly engaged to instill in the People the Principles of Loyalty and Duty to your Majesty.

Your Majesty's Choice of the Earl of Loudoun to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, we acknowledge thankfully as a special Mark of your Regard to the Good of this Church, having had Experience of his great Knowledge and Capacity, and of his Zeal for your Majesty's Service; and it gives us particular Satisfaction, that your Majesty is pleased to mention as a Reason of your Choice, his Adherence to the Principles of this Church, and Concern for its Prosperity, of which he has given many convincing Proofs.

That your Majesty's precious Life, which is so great a Blessing to all your People, and the whole Protestant Interest, may be long preserved; That the best of Heaven's Blessings may be plentifully poured out upon your Royal Person, the Prince of Wales, the Princess, and all your Royal Offspring; That your wise Councils and Undertakings for the Happiness of your own Kingdoms, the Relief of distressed and persecuted Protestants, the Welfare of all the Reformed Churches, and the Good of Christendom, may be crowned with remarkable Success; That the Designs of all your secret and avowed Enemies may be defeated; That your Crown may long flourish upon your Head, and at length you may inherit immortal Glory, are and shall be the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment,
